

Continuing our Commitment to Statewide Education

Planning is underway for the next Upstate New York Conference & Reception, taking place this year in Syracuse. On Sunday, October 18th, we will welcome attendees to an evening networking reception at the Museum of Science & Technology (MOST). The following day, Monday, October 19th, attend a full day of educational presentations at the Downtown Marriott Hotel. We invite companies to sponsor this event and join us in supporting high-quality education for the healthcare risk management community.
