

Christopher Allman, JD, CPHRM
Director of Risk Management, Compliance & Insurance
Garden City Hospital

Christopher Allman is the Director of Risk Management, Compliance and Insurance for Garden City Hospital, a 323-bed community hospital located in Garden City, Michigan, and the Midwest Regional Director of Risk Management for Prime Healthcare Services, the parent company of Garden City Hospital and 43 other hospitals across the U.S.

A twenty-year attorney, Mr. Allman has focused his career on general health law, including all areas of regulatory compliance on the federal and state levels, healthcare risk management, and litigation. More specifically, Mr. Allman's has provided expertise in areas of strict government regulation, such as Stark, Anti-Kickback Statute, False Claims Act and HIPAA, as those matters become increasingly complex in today's environment. Mr. Allman's clients have included major regional medical centers, small community hospitals and individual physician offices. Mr. Allman is also a frequent lecturer to physician groups, residents, nurses and risk managers on a variety of healthcare topics. He has published articles on a variety of healthcare topics, including HIPAA, licensing matters, e-Discovery and Healthcare Reform.

Mr. Allman is a Certified Professional in Healthcare Risk Management (CPHRM), a Past President of the Michigan Society of Healthcare Risk Management and has served as the Chair of the Advocacy Task Force for the American Society for Healthcare Risk Management from 2012-2014. He is also an active member of the State Bar of Michigan – Health Law Section and the American Health Lawyers Association. Mr. Allman graduated from Wayne State University Law School in 1996 and Hope College in 1992.