

Samuel J. Furci, MPA is President and CEO of Furci Associates, LLC. Furci Associates provides regulatory consulting services and interim staffing to the healthcare industry. Sam's expertise includes hospital operations, accreditation, medical staff leadership development, strategic planning, medical staff bylaws, policies and procedures, credentialing, and privileging. His work in regulatory compliance includes hospitals, behavioral health, long-term care, and ambulatory surgery centers.

Sam's acute care experience includes both major teaching hospitals and community hospitals. He has served in senior management positions including interim president, executive vice president and chief operating officer and vice president of professional services.

Sam has authored articles and spoken extensively on medical staff management, accreditation, and regulatory compliance. He writes a monthly column for the HCPro publication Medical Staff Briefing.

Sam received his Bachelor of Arts from California State University, Long Beach. He received his Master of Public Administration with concentration in health administration from Rutgers University.