

Dr. Lawrence (Larry) Diamond is a board-certified physician in Family Medicine and Geriatrics. He is a graduate of Stony Brook University School of Medicine and completed his post-graduate training at Brookdale Hospital Medical Center. He has been in private practice for over thirty years and has also been an attending physician in nursing homes on a continuous basis during this time. He has served as medical director of several post-acute and long-term care facilities, both proprietary and non-profit, most recently at the largest nursing home on Long Island. He has also served as medical director at Article 28 facilities and organizations. He currently serves as an attending physician at several facilities as well as the Corporate Compliance Officer of a large skilled nursing facility.

Dylan Braverman is a Partner of Vigorito, Barker, Pattersn, Nichols & Porter, LLP, specializing in complex civil litigation, insurance coverage, healthcare/ professional regulatory, and transactional services. Dylan has been awarded Super Lawyer designation, representing the top 5% of the attorneys in NY.

Mr. Braverman has vast experience handling professional liability, medical malpractice, D&O, cyber, privacy, labor/construction law, real property and casualty claims, civil rights, RICO and USC 1983 claims, fraud, insurance coverage and securities litigation. In addition to litigation, he provides regulatory and transactional services for many Metro-New York medical facilities and intuitions, as well as other professionals and police forces/ first responders.

Mr. Braverman handles litigation from inception to trial, and has extensive appellate experience in the United States Court of Appeals Second Circuit and the New York State Appellate Division. He regularly attends alternative dispute resolution forums for mediations and arbitrations, and is well-known by the most prominent New York mediators and arbitrators. Dylan's clients include hospitals, urgent care centers, medical practices and physicians throughout New York. He has long been the counsel of choice for professionals ranging from directors, officers, attorneys, engineers, architects and others. He has represented several large national and international insurers in complex multistate coverage litigation and as excess monitoring counsel. Mr. Braverman represents Fortune 500 companies and large international corporations in multistate products liability litigation. He has also long represented leading technology companies in all manner of commercial and civil litigation. Finally, Dylan has a rich history of working with many of the largest national and international general liability and labor law/construction insurers, as well as specialty and property insurers.

Admitted

New York State
United States Court of Appeals Second Circuit
United States District Court- Southern District of New York
United States District Court- Eastern District of New York.

Memberships

New York State Medical Malpractice Defense Bar Association
Association for Healthcare Risk Management of New York
Chappaqua Fire Department/Patrol Company

Mario C. Giannettino is a partner in the firm's Medical Malpractice, General Litigation and Nursing Home and Long Care practice groups. He represents a range of health care professionals and providers including residential health care and assisted living facilities, physicians, physician's assistants, hospitals and home health agencies. In addition to defending suit from inception and through discovery, Mario also serves as a trial attorney. He has extensive experience in alternate dispute resolution methods, such as mediation and arbitration.

In addition to litigation, Mario provides a broad spectrum of services to clients, including staff training, in-servicing and risk assessment. Mario also provides a variety of services to assist in compliance with privacy and security under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) and the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act (HITECH) with respect to the use, disclosure, exchange, retention and destruction of health information.

Mario regularly publishes and speaks nationally on matters relating to all aspects of health care defense and has been a featured author in The Risk Management Quarterly, Long-Term Living and various other publications. He is frequently invited to give in-service lectures as a legal advisor within the health care industry pertaining to the defense of residential health care facilities. In addition to practicing throughout New York State, Mario serves as supervisory/monitoring counsel for residential health care facilities nationwide and is also admitted to practice law in the State of Connecticut.

Education

Brooklyn Law School, J.D., 2002

New York University, B.A., 1997

Bar and Court Admissions

Connecticut

New York

U.S. District Court – Southern District of New York

Other Professional Affiliations

New York State Bar Association Westchester Columbian Lawyers Association