

Sandra Bevans is a Divisional Claims Manager and the National Coordinator for COVID-19 Claims with MedPro Group. Ms. Bevans received her BS, cum laude, from Quinnipiac University and her JD from UCONN Law School. Ms. Bevans was a practicing attorney, focusing on professional malpractice in both trial and appellate courts. The majority of her career has been dedicated to claims handling of medical malpractice cases against hospitals, long term care facilities and surgery centers. Since January 2021, she has been exclusively handling COVID-related litigation against healthcare providers. Outside of work, Sandra enjoys DIY home improvement projects and being a supportive equestrian/baseball mom.

Bonnita (Bonnie) Boone is an insurance executive. She has recently joined J. P West Inc of New York as an Executive Vice President. She develops strategy and places professional liability, general liability, cyber liability, and other lines of coverage for a broad range of large clients. Her expertise includes captives, reinsurance, manufacturing risk, financial institutions, bio tech, physicians, Hospitals, long Term Care and Managed Care. She will work with leadership to develop markets, process, and overall corporate strategy.

Bonnie has over 38 years of experience in the insurance industry as a broker and underwriter., In addition to her J. P. West she has worked for Gallagher as a producer, and Client Executive. In 2017 she worked for Marsh NYC, where she sat on the national executive committee for its healthcare practice. Prior to that, she was with Alliant Insurances Services where she oversaw healthcare and casualty for the Chicago and New York offices. She also held a national position with Willis for more than a decade and worked with 280 retail offices on a global basis to produce business, market, and set strategy for the health care industry and casualty business. She chaired product line/industry segments for long-term care, managed care, and HPL (integrated delivery systems), among others. She has placed reinsurance for some the largest captive programs in the country.

Additional experience includes managing an underwriting staff and a book of business for Continental Insurance Company with a premium volume of $103 million. Establishing market direction, reinsurance treaties, developing rates, underwriting guidelines, and corporate strategies were a part of her duties.

Recognitions and Honors:

- November 2022, PLUS, (Professional Liability Underwriting Society) Excellence in Diversity
- 2021- 100 Most Influential African American Leaders in Business by National Diversity Council
- Cohort class 1V 2021- Leverage Network
- 2020 Hall of Fame Honor by IBA (Insurance Business America)
- In 2019 received the honor of Savoy Magazine Most Influential Women in Corporate America
- Awarded the 2019 Lifetime Achievement Award from NAIAA
- Power Broker, 2008 and 2009, Risk & Insurance magazine
- Women to Watch, 2008 and special recognition 2015, Business Insurance

Dylan Braverman is a Partner and Co-Chair of the Vigorito, Barker, Patterson, Nichols & Porter, LLP COVID-19 litigation team. The COVID-19 litigation team is a nationally recognized leader in defending against COVID-19 claims. Dylan and his team are lead counsel defending Municipalities, Health Systems, Nursing Homes and other professionals against COVID-19 claims throughout New York and the nation.

Dylan is also the Co-Chair of the Firm's Nursing Home practice group. This subspecialty aggressively defends nursing homes in the New York metropolitan area.

For over 20-years, Dylan has specialized in complex civil litigation, commercial litigation, insurance coverage and healthcare services. He has been awarded Super Lawyer designation since 20018, representing the top 5% of the attorneys in New York City.

Dylan is a licensed firefighter. He is the former-President of the Associate of Healthcare Risk Managers of New York ("AHRMNY"). He is still intimately involved with his adopted home in Harlem, New York where he lived for almost 25-years. He currently lives in Westchester with his family, where he is a Division Coordinator and Coach of the local American Youth Soccer Organization. Dylan has traveled to every continent and visited dozens of countries.

Adriann Combs, DNP, NNP-BC is a doctorally prepared neonatal nurse practitioner with more than 40 years of practice in perinatal health. Her roles have included Clinical Nurse Educator, Neonatal Nurse Practitioner and her current role as the Clinical Director of a ten maternity hospital system within a large healthcare system in New York State.

Dr. Combs has published and presented on Perinatal Health Care Safety, Perinatal Ethics, Extrauterine Transition, Maternal Hemorrhage, Thermoregulation, Retinopathy of Prematurity and Maternal Morbidity and Mortality.

Most recently, she published two articles related to the impact of COVID-19 on pregnancy. The publications include, "Universal testing for coronavirus disease 2019 in pregnant women admitted for delivery: prevalence of peripartum infection and rate of asymptomatic carriers at four New York hospitals within an integrated healthcare system" and "The care of pregnant women during the COVID-19 pandemic - response of a large health system in metropolitan New York".

Lesli Giglio, RN, MPA, CPHRM, CPPS, CHPC, currently serves as Senior Vice President of Risk Management, Chief Risk Officer (CRO) and Chief Privacy Officer for Catholic Health in Rockville Center, New York. She has over 30 years' experience in Risk Management and Patient Safety. She is currently responsible for the System Wide Risk Management Program at Catholic Health including implementing a high reliability safety program with the goal of achieving zero harm.

Lesli holds a Green Belt Certification in Six Sigma, as well as certification in Risk Management, Patient Safety and Privacy. She has BSN from SUNY Binghamton and a Master's in Public Administration (MPA) in Healthcare Administration. She is a frequent lecturer at National Safety Conferences on High Reliability in Healthcare.

Lesli is a Past-President of The Association of Healthcare Risk Management of New York, Inc. (AHRMNY) and currently serves as a Board Member and Chair, Fundraising Committee.

Shawn P. Kelly is the Senior Partner of Kelly, Rode & Kelly, LLP, which firm has represented leading insurance companies for over sixty (60) years. He has been a member of the firm since 1977 and has been a partner since 1980. He handles a broad range of civil litigation matters with a particular interest in the defense of medical and hospital malpractice matters as well as general liability matters.

He was born in New York City and brought up in Stuyvesant Town and later moved to Long Island. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of Notre Dame in South Bend, Indiana and graduated in 1974. He then earned his Juris Doctorate degree from St. John's University School of Law in Queens in 1977 and was admitted to the bar in January 1978. He is admitted to practice before all state courts in New York, the Eastern and Southern Districts of the Federal District Court in New York, the United States Supreme Court and the United States Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces.

He is a fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers (FACTL). The American College of Trial Lawyers is an invitation only fellowship of exceptional trial lawyers of diverse backgrounds from the United States and Canada. The College thoroughly investigates each nominee for admission and selects only those who have demonstrated the very highest standards of trial advocacy, ethical conduct, integrity, professionalism and collegiality. (FACTL). No more than 1% of lawyers who are licensed to practice in a state, have their principal office there, and are actively practicing there may be elected as Fellow. He has also earned a rating of AV by his peers in Martindale-Hubbell.

In 1978, he successfully completed the NITA program, an intensive trial advocacy program at Cornell University in Ithaca, New York and later was asked to become an instructor of the program. He is an adjunct faculty member of the Hofstra University School of Law and has also lectured at St. John's University School of Law.

In 2001-2002 he was elected Chairman of the Trial Lawyers Section of the Nassau-Suffolk County Bar Association. Prior to becoming Chairman, he served many years as an officer and director of that Long Island trial organization. He was named by The New York Times to "Super Lawyers" as one of the top attorneys in the New York Metro Area, 2007-2020. He is also a member of the New York State Bar Association where he is a member of the Torts, Insurance and Compensation Law (TICL) Section as well as the Trial Lawyers Section.

He has lectured widely on matters of trial practice to the New York State Bar Association, the Practising Law Institute (PLI), the Nassau Academy of Law and the Law Department of the City of New York. He regularly appears before physicians' groups to lecture on litigation issues pertinent to the medical field. On September 19, 2016, he was an invited lecturer at the AAO-HNSF - American Academy of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery Annual Meeting in San Diego, CA. On June 9, 2017, he was an invited lecturer of the Association for Healthcare Risk Management of New York (ASHRM) held at the Andaz Hotel 75 Wall Street, NYC on "Emerging Trends in Medical Malpractice Litigation." On September 12, 2017, he was an invited lecturer at the 2017 Annual Meeting of the American Academy of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery (AAO-HNS) on "Malpractice in Otolaryngology: Strategies to Reduce Liability" held at the McCormick Convention Center Chicago, Ill. In October of 2018, he was invited back as a feature speaker to the 2018 Annual Meeting of the American Academy of Otolaryngology Head and Neck Surgery (AAO-HNS) which was held at the Georgia World Congress Convention Center in Atlanta, Georgia.

He is also a contributing author to Medical Malpractice in New York, 4th edition published by the New York State Bar Association 2017. He recently contributed two chapters to a text just published by Springer Publications May 2021 entitled "Litigation in Otolaryngology-Minimizing Liability and Preventing Adverse outcomes."

Victor R. Klein, MD, MBA is currently a Perinatologist in the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology at North Shore University Hospital while serving as the Vice Chair of Obstetrics & Gynecology at North Shore University Hospital and the System Director of Quality & Patient Safety for the Ob Gyn Service Line at Northwell Health. Dr. Klein has been engaged in risk management and patient safety for over 30 years and has lectured extensively on these fields throughout the country, including the ASHRM annual meeting. Dr. Klein received his medical degree from the State University of New York at Brooklyn/Downstate Medical School. He completed his internship at Kings County Hospital Center, residency in Obstetrics and Gynecology at The Johns Hopkins Hospital, fellowships in Maternal-Fetal Medicine and Medical Genetics at the University of Texas Health Science Center at Dallas, and his MBA in Quality Management at Hofstra University. He is board certified in medical genetics, general obstetrics & gynecology, and maternal fetal medicine, has obtained CPHRM certification, and is recognized as a Fellow of the American Society for Health Care Risk Management. Dr. Klein has been a member of the editorial board and past editor of the Journal of Healthcare Risk Management, is on the Board of Directors for AHRMNY, a past board member for ASHRM, and is on the AHA Maternal & Child Health Council. He is nationally recognized and has written over 75 articles and publications on obstetrics & gynecology, risk management and patient safety. Dr. Klein represents the American Society for Healthcare Risk Management for the Alliance for Innovation on Maternal Health (AIM).

Rob Marshall, CPCU, RPLU, AIC, RIMS-CRMP, MBA is a Client Advocate within WillisTowersWatson Corporate Risk and Insurance Brokerage division. He has a multi-disciplined background in claims management, medical professional liability underwriting and insurance brokerage/consulting risk management. Prior to joining Willis, Rob held several positions of increasing responsibility within The St. Paul, Zurich North American Specialties Health Care Division, and Aon Risk Services Health Care Division respectively. Well versed in insurance program evaluation, structure, selection, negotiation and placement of professional and non-professional insurance lines with particular emphasis in the design, implementation and oversight of alternative risk financing vehicles such as single parent, group captive/self-insured retention programs, risk retention groups, and reinsurance placements of captives.

Rob has a BS in Finance from St. John's University, NY, and an MBA in Financial Management from Pace Lubin School of Business in NYC. He holds several insurance designations including, the Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU), Registered Professional Liability Underwriter (RPLU), and Associate in Claims (AIC).

Rob is a member of Omicron Delta Epsilon, an International Honors Society for Economics, and was nominated as a "Power Broker" from Risk and Insurance Magazine 2009 and 2015 respectively in the Healthcare segment. Rob has also spoken at PLUS, Crittenden, and ASHRM.

Robert Martin currently concentrates his practice in all phases of construction, products liability, premises liability, toxic tort, and breach of contract litigation. Prior to joining London Fischer LLP. Mr. Martin was Senior Litigation Counsel – Trial Attorney for a major insurance carrier where he specialized in medical malpractice, dental malpractice, and allied healthcare professional defense. Previously, he was a partner at a New York area defense firm where he specialized in trial and defense of medical malpractice (individual physician, multi-specialty group, hospital, and nursing home), architectural malpractice, products liability, labor law and construction site, premises, fraud, libel and breach of contract actions through all phases from pleadings through discovery and trial in State and Federal courts; preparation and argument of appeals; participation in mediations and arbitrations; and preparation of and delivery of presentations to clients.

Mike Midgley, RN, JD, MPH, CPHRM, DFASHRM is an experienced healthcare risk manager, nurse, insurance professional, attorney and professor. He began his clinical career as a nurse in intensive care and emergency medicine. Mike started his healthcare risk management career with a captive insurance company in New York City, having dedicated risk and claims management consulting responsibilities to a major tertiary care medical center. He then served as a risk manager at academic medical centers in New York City. Mr. Midgley later worked in the field as a risk management consultant, underwriter, product development manager, business development manager and compliance officer with medical malpractice insurance carriers. Mike is currently the Head of Loss Control for Munich Re Specialty Insurance.

He is on faculty for Loyola Law School where he teaches leadership and strategic planning and serves as faculty for the American Society for Health Care Risk Management (ASHRM).

Mr. Midgley is a New York licensed attorney and is a member of the NY State Bar Association. Mike earned his Juris Doctor (JD) from Fordham University School of Law. He has a Master of Public Health degree from the University of Medicine and Dentistry of NJ and a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing from Rutgers University School of Nursing. He is a Distinguished Fellow of ASHRM (DFASHRM) for superior achievement and has earned Certified Professional in Healthcare Risk Management (CPHRM) designation.

Mike was the 2017 President of ASHRM. He is a Past President of the Association for Healthcare Risk Management of New York (AHRMNY) where he continues to serve on the Board of Directors. Mike is also an active member of the NJ, FL and TN ASHRM Chapters. Mike has authored book chapters and articles on various risk management topics and routinely provides risk management lectures.

Carolyn Reinach Wolf is an Executive Partner in the law firm of Abrams, Fensterman, LLP and Director of the Firm's Mental Health Law practice. She is the only attorney in the country with a family-focused practice dedicated to serving individuals and families struggling with serious mental illness and/or alcohol/drug addiction. Supported by a team of expert clinicians and her departmental attorneys, she specializes in guiding families through the complex landscape of legal issues that impact loved ones with serious mental illness and/or substance abuse issues. She also represents institutions, such as major hospital systems, mental health, healthcare and addiction professionals, and higher educational institutions. Ms. Wolf is a regular contributor to Psychology Today and was profiled by The New York Times in a 2013 story entitled, "A Guide in the Darkness," which ran on the front page of the Sunday Edition Metro section.