OUR GUEST SPEAKER

Maggie P. Emma, Esq.
Assistant Vice President, Risk Management
Northwell Health

As the Assistant Vice President in Risk Management at Northwell Health, Inc., Maggie Emma collaborates daily with senior leaders and frontline team members regarding patient care, customer experience, litigation, insurance, practitioner and employee engagement, safeguarding protected health information, and the array of issues facing New York's largest health system. Before joining the team at Northwell, Maggie was a Claims Counsel at a third-party administrator, responsible for overseeing medical malpractice claims for self-insured hospitals in Brooklyn and New Jersey.

Prior thereto she worked as an attorney with the law firm of Shaub, Ahmuty, Citrin & Spratt defending hospitals, health systems and individual practitioners. Maggie received a Bachelor of Science degree magna cum laude, with a major in biology and minor in critical social studies, from Hobart and William Smith Colleges. Thereafter, Maggie attended the Pathways of Human Disease graduate program at the University of Rochester School of Medicine and Dentistry. Maggie obtained her law degree from the Maurice A. Deane School of Law at Hofstra University, where she completed a fellowship in Health Law and Policy and graduated cum laude. Maggie is admitted the New York State Bar. Maggie enjoys spending time with her two young sons, husband and their family.
